

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, America's diverse transportation system takes us where we need to go, keeps our economy moving, and strengthens our nation's security - safely transporting our citizens and delivering a wide range of goods throughout the country and the world; and
- WHEREAS, whether traveling by road, rail, water, or air, Americans throughout South Carolina and the nation can choose from a large number of options in reaching their destinations; and
- WHEREAS, beyond moving people, our transportation system also makes possible the delivery of countless products throughout the country - products that help generate and sustain the economic growth that benefits us all; and
- WHEREAS, South Carolina's transportation industry is committed to meeting the needs of every farm, home, and business in the Palmetto State; and
- WHEREAS, Transportation Week calls attention to the importance of transportation to our quality of life, while encouraging our young people to consider transportation-related careers.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 16 - 22, 2004, as

TRANSPORTATION WEEK

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the critical role transportation plays in safety, economic competitiveness, and the quality of life of the residents of the Palmetto State and to honor transportation professionals for their expertise in designing, building, and operating our transportation system.
